Operational/L&E [REDACTED] J
Operational use of drugs

F/H
Reference: [REDACTED] DIR 37249 (CWT 68655)

- F/I
1. Reference drug is an extremely sensitive device and its use is highly susceptible to detection. In addition we must logically assume that the [REDACTED] have the same, or a similar, drug, and that our use of it would open the door for retaliation. For these reasons the drug can only be used a very limited number of times throughout the world. Headquarters feels, therefore, that its use should be confined to targets of the very highest level.
 2. Headquarters commands the continued efforts of the station to effect an exploitation of the [REDACTED] Contacts in [REDACTED] and assures the station that we are attempting, in coordination with the [REDACTED] Staff, to determine the best possible plan, devices, and techniques for such operations. Headquarters will advise the station of any additional information regarding referenced drug and its operational use. F
